Re: Lawson & Weitzen, LLP's Invoices

Dear Mr. Shank:

I am writing to apologize for the incorrect information contained in my email dated July 5, 2017, and to provide you with the correct information concerning the invoices sent by our office. In the July 5th email, I stated that the total amount owed for legal services, as of July 5, on the "Recall of Selectmen" matter was $29,379.16. However, this amount did not include the work performed by Attorney Zaleznik in the month of June and was therefore incorrect. As you will note, the attached bill sent on August 21, 2017, now properly includes the work performed, and numerous court appearances, by Attorney Zaleznik in June.

In addition, as George previously estimated that the appeal would likely require 15-20 hours of additional work, beginning on July 5, 2017, the attached bill includes this approximately 20 hours of legal work performed by Attorney Hailer and Attorney O'Grady since July 5, 2017.

Accordingly the attached bill indicates 52 hours of legal work. Of that time, 20 hours were performed after July 5, 2017 as previously estimated, and the remaining hours are attributable to the work performed by Attorney Zaleznik in June, before July 5th, that was improperly omitted in my previous email.

You will not be invoiced for any hours above this amount and will not be required to pay unless this office is successful in its arguments before the Supreme Judicial Court.
